

Questionnaire Virtu

- What is the thermal heat used for?
- How is the thermal heat currently produced?
- What type of fuel is currently being used?
- What are the unit costs for the customer?
- What is the temperature of the heat that is required? Are multiple temperatures required?
- What is the thermal demand per season?
- What is the annual electricity consumption? And from the previous years? Is there an increasing consumption?
- What is the address of the building?
- Do you have an indication of the available space?
- Is it a flat or cornered roof?
- Do you want us to provide the complete installation or do you prefer to work with your own installer?
- Are there local relevant subsidies?
- How heavy is the electrical connection to the building?
- Are there spare groups on the installation?
- Are works planned around the buildings?
- Is there a lot of shading?
- Is there warranty on the roof (possibly partially)?
- What is the general use of the building? Residential or industrial purposes?
- Are there other plans for renewable technologies?
- Where is the technical room?
- Is there room in the current cable ducts to get from the technical room to the roof without having to adjust the building?
- Is the building owned or rented?